MENTAL CAPACITY

In English Law, the case of Banks v Goodfellow (1870) provided us with a test considering a person's mental capacity and whether they have due knowledge and understanding to make a Will. In essence, a person must have a firm understanding of what they hold in their estate, how they wish to distribute their estate and the effect that this will have. They must have arrived at their decision on how to distribute their estate on their own, without the influence of others, and the contents of their Will must reflect their true wishes and intentions.

The following questions must be completed by the instruction taker, this is important for your own protection:

	Testator 1	Testator 2
Does the Testator(s) understand that they are giving instructions from which their Will shall be drafted?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Does the Testator(s) recollect in general terms what is owned by them?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Is the Testator(s) aware of who might be considered to have a moral claim on their estate – friends or relatives – even if they choose them not to benefit?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Is the Testator(s) broadly aware of how the estate will be shared out?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
How long have you known the Testator(s)?	<input type="text"/>
Have Wills previously been prepared for the Testator(s) and are copies available?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

SOLIDUS PLAN APPLICATION FOR MARRIED COUPLES AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIPS

Before completing this application form, please refer to the guidance notes

To print the application form only, please print the relevant pages

For details about the features and benefits of the Solidus Plan, please see the information and guidance on the Licensee resource area of the SIEP website www.siep.co.uk

GUIDANCE NOTES

Please note if the application is not fully and clearly completed it may cause delays.

Please ensure that you have referred to the government guidance regarding which Trusts do and do not require registration under the new anti-money laundering regulations. Solidus will register all Trusts that we receive instructions for.

1 Number of Trusts required

The Solidus Plan includes two single Settlor Trusts, one for each Client. The first to die's available NRB will be directed into their Trust and on second death the residue can then go into the other Trust.

Alternatively, the Clients can set up additional Beneficiary Protection Trusts to receive the estate on second death. This would enable them to have one Trust per child if required. The unused Solidus Trust will then be available for lifetime transfers by the surviving spouse, giving additional tax planning opportunities.

If business planning is required, each Settlor who owns BR/AR qualifying assets will require their own Business Trust.

2 Clients' details

Ensure you provide the Clients' full, legal names as they appear on official identity documents such as their passport. If they are known by another name such as their middle name or a nickname please include this on the notes page. Nationality and date of birth will be required for Trust Registration with HMRC.

Domicile - It is important that you confirm if the Clients are UK domiciled for IHT purposes.

Foreign Property - If the Clients have any foreign property assets, please note these are excluded from the Wills we are drafting and they should ensure that they have foreign Wills to cover these assets.

Widow/er - If either of the Clients have ever been widowed, please provide details on the notes page of any unused NRB allowance that will be transferable from the deceased spouse's estate.

3 Children's details

Please confirm the children's full names, addresses, dates of birth and whether they are joint children or a child of only one of the Clients. Please note that step-child is not a legal term, so such person would be identified by their full name and address.

4 Financial Information

Please provide approximate values of the Clients' key estate assets. Please note that Solidus will rely upon the accuracy of the information given to provide the correct advice.

5 Clients with qualifying business or agricultural assets

The provision of additional trust planning for Clients with qualifying business (BR) or agricultural (AR) assets can realise significant tax and long-term protection benefits through the use of advanced Business Trust planning. It is best practice to ask the accountant of the Client to confirm the current status of any such assets before adding this planning to any Client framework. Business planning is advised for all larger estates to maximise RNRB planning.

6 Trustees

Ensure you provide the Trustees' full, legal names as they appear on official identity documents such as their passport. Nationality and date of birth will be required for Trust Registration with HMRC.

If the Clients are Trustees, we recommend there are at least two additional Trustees. If the Clients are not Trustees, we recommend there are three and a maximum of four Trustees. Trustees can be friends, family members over the age of 18 or peers.

Overseas Trustees - Please note that appointing an overseas resident Trustee may have tax or reporting consequences and they should take local advice based on current taxation laws as to any adverse tax implications, or reporting requirements, of being a Trustee. If you wish to proceed with an overseas resident Trustee, please note that advice must be taken at the time that the Trusts receive significant funds.

Appointing different Trustees on multiple Trusts - if you wish to appoint different Trustees on multiple Trusts, please copy the relevant page and complete with Trustee details for each Trust.

Lead Trustee - All Trustees are equally legally responsible for the Trust but you must nominate a 'Lead' Trustee to be the main point of contact for HMRC and provide their NI number, telephone number and email address. The Lead Trustee will receive the Trust's Unique Tax Reference (UTR) and reminders to file tax returns.

Trustees Signing of Documents - If Trustees' signatures are to be executed in advance using Solidus' postal service, please leave the boxes blank. Please note that the Clients will need to arrange their own postal exercise for any overseas Trustees.

7 Action of Clients' Wills on first death

On the death of the first Client, the value of their available NRB will be protected within their Solidus Trust. The remainder of their estate can then be left to the surviving spouse either absolutely or on a life interest.

Absolute gifting allows the surviving spouse unrestricted access to the remainder of the deceased spouse's estate but offers no additional protection.

On the death of the first Client, the value of their available NRB will be protected within their Solidus Trust. The remainder of their estate can then be left to the surviving spouse either absolutely or on a life interest.

Absolute gifting allows the surviving spouse unrestricted access to the remainder of the deceased spouse's estate but offers no additional protection.

Life interest provides the surviving spouse with an income from investments and a right to live in the property but they have no rights to the capital. This is commonly used in blended families or if the Clients are concerned about remarriage after first death, where they wish to control the final distribution of their individual assets.

Estates approaching or exceeding £2,000,000

In most cases, estates that qualify for the RNRB tax allowance will utilise both Clients' allowances on second death. This will be claimed by the Executors and Trustees as an additional part of the probate process.

However, if the surviving spouse's estate exceeds £2 million, the ability to claim the available RNRB tax allowance in full is reduced and is lost completely if it exceeds £2.7 million. Planning can be included in their Wills to give the Clients the option to use the RNRB allowance on first death by passing a proportion of the qualifying residence to their children directly. This will result in the surviving spouse having to share partial ownership with the children to allow the RNRB allowance to be claimed. The gift to the children can be an absolute share of the property or a life interest. Please ensure that Clients are made aware of this if the allowance is to be claimed on the death of the first spouse.

Property ownership

In order for the Clients' main residence to pass via their Wills and therefore be available to fund the NRB Trust if required, it needs to be owned on a Tenants in Common basis. If the property is currently owned as Joint Tenants Solidus will draft a Deed of Severance and Equity Share Deed to change the ownership to Tenants in Common in equal shares. If the property is already owned as Tenants in Common then we will just provide an Equity Share Deed to confirm that the property is owned 50/50. Please advise in the notes if the Clients wish to own their property on any other basis and also if they own any other properties that they wish to change the ownership of.

8 Beneficiaries

The Trust(s) to be drafted will be Discretionary Trust(s); the Beneficiaries under the Trust(s) are Discretionary Beneficiaries. With a Discretionary Trust the Trustees decide the detail of who benefits from the Trust, and when they benefit, from the classes of Beneficiary or named Beneficiaries specified. Please remember that the Settlor will not be a Beneficiary unless a special Settlor Interested Trust is specifically requested. Trustees, provided they are not Settlers, can be Beneficiaries.

The first two classes of Beneficiary listed will be potential Beneficiaries in all Trusts drafted unless the Clients wish to exclude them. Please add to these classes of Beneficiary as required.

Tick the additional classes of Beneficiary ONLY if the Beneficiaries are to be INCLUDED

Please detail any additional classes of Beneficiary you would like to benefit from the Trust in the notes section.

If there is only one person within a class e.g. one brother, then this person must be named in full. Please give full names and addresses of Beneficiaries in the notes section or on a separate sheet.

9 Executors

The job of the Executor is to make sure the wishes expressed in the Will are carried out. The Executors can appoint Solidus IEP or our legal partner to do this work associated with the Wills and Trust(s) in order to maximise the benefit of the planning, however it is at the Executors' discretion.

Please confirm if the Executors should be the same as the Trustees of the Trust(s) or if they are to be different, please provide full details.

10 Guardians

If the Clients have children who are under the age of 18 they must specify who should be appointed as their legal Guardian in the event that both parents are deceased.

11 Chattels

The Wills will be drafted to leave all Chattels (portable personal possessions such as jewellery, paintings, furniture etc) to the Executors of the Will to distribute as they see fit. If the Clients have items that they wish to leave to a specific person, please provide details and this can be included in the Letter of Wishes. Please note that if the Clients have a long or detailed list of Chattel gifts it will be more appropriate to provide this as a side-letter that Solidus can make reference to this in our Letter of Wishes.

12 Specific Legacies

If the Clients wish to leave any specific cash gifts in their Wills please provide details.

13 Funeral Wishes

Please indicate if the Clients have a funeral preference. Specific funeral wishes can be detailed on the Notes page and will then be included in the Clients' Letter of Wishes.

14 Notes

Additional notes relating to any of the previous sections should be made here and/or on a separate sheet. Please also advise us of any additional information that may be pertinent to the Clients' planning such as vulnerable Beneficiaries, unwanted Beneficiaries, anticipated inheritances or gifts or loans made in the last few years or to be made in the future.
